

Free writing

Scholarship application

A school year in an English-speaking country? Why not?

Full scholarships are being offered by the following schools in English-speaking countries for the coming school year. A full scholarship will cover your school fees, transport and living costs.

Here are the schools you can choose:

Colford Boarding School, Nottingham,
United Kingdom

Thordon High, Wellington, New Zealand

Saint Declans, Dublin, Ireland

Ashbury College, Ottawa, Canada

Bundoora High, Adelaide, Australia

Maritzburg Grammar School, Cape Town, South Africa

Bachmann Academy, Tennessee, USA

Photo: www.colourbox.com

Choose one of the schools above and write an application (350-450 words) to the school.

Include

- why it is important for you to spend a school year in that particular country
- why you should be chosen - perhaps you have some special qualities that you would like to improve or skills you could develop
- how you could contribute to typical school life.